First Program Service Accomplishments Description

Description

Workers' access to lactation information and skills. We hosted a Baby Behavior Training for 55 community partners, the majority of whom were CHWs or CHW-like professionals and most from the East Metro. We created 3 90-minute learning webinars specifically for CHWs; these are now posted on the MBC YouTube page and have 262 views to date. The third activity was to participate in the rewriting of the CHW certificate curriculum and infuse current infant feeding information into the learning sessions.

Second Program Service Accomplishments Description of hospital birthing centers around human lactation. We have a part-time project director who recruits and meets with hospital teams regularly to develop action plans, guide policy and practice improvements, and to connect more closely with the community lactation experts. This project includes very modest mini-grants for birthing centers in the learning cohorts to pay for trainings or environmental improvements. The overall goal is for more hospital birthing centers to be optimal environments for breastfeeding initiation.

Description

the state. The 11 local coalitions receiving seed money used the funding to foster breastfeeding friendly worksites or child care in their communities (like funding setting up a lactation space for employees) or for outreach to their communities (such as paying for breastfeeding related books for the local library). The pandemic paused or changed many of the activities, so that several coalitions used funding for virtual activities like Facebook Live events. Additionally, we extended the period for the Seed Money activities to 18 months from the original 12 months. MBC met (virtually) with the coalitions regularly to offer technical assistance during this challenging period.

MDH WIC OA and Welch's funds ($7,861 expenses; $8,757 grants): This funding is considered a sponsorship for MBC activities from Minnesota Department of Health WIC. Approximately $7000 was directed towards sponsoring the one-day Perinatal Hospital Leadership Summit, covering speakers fees and meeting expenses. Nearly 100 persons attended this event to learn about lactation best practices in the hospital setting. The rest of the funds were used for leadership of the recently founded Hmong Breastfeeding Coalition, and to support Chocolate Milk Day, which is a community event in late August to promote breastfeeding in the African American community.	8,757		7,861
